

HEYSEN TRAIL ART EXHIBITION, FEBRUARY 2010

Some of the artists exhibiting include:

- Peter Coad and Waterhouse Prize winner Coralie Armstrong, seizing on the wildly dramatic landscapes of the Northern Flinders
- Tom O'Callaghan, the surging coast line of Waitpinga for which he is so noted
- Dieter Engler, shows desolate forgotten settlements beyond the Goyder Line
- Mary Wagstaff recreates luscious landscapes and juicy vineyards
- Janet Bridgland, delicate watercolours revealing the fascinating weekly walks to Adelaide markets by the German girls of Hahndorf
- Nikolas De Masi, stitches multi layered fabric for the rich fields around Balaklava
- Trevor McNamara, glowing abstracts catch the fierce light from rock faces and salt lakes
- Pamela Kouenhoven, wondrously decaying panels bring reminders of early settlement.
